The Government of the Republic of Suriname shall accept full responsibility for, and shall hold the United States Government harmless from, any and all claims arising from the use of projects constructed, or in the process of being constructed in whole or in part, during exercises or other agreed activities of United States personnel present in the Republic of Suriname pursuant to the terms of this agreement.

contracts for the acquisition of articles and services, in accordance with its laws and regulations. The United States Government shall have the right to choose such contractors, and United States contractors and their employees shall be accorded the same privileges as United States Armed Forces and civilian personnel with regard to licensing and registration of vehicles, drivers, and professional licenses; and with regard to the export, import, and acquisition of goods and equipment for official or personal use.

Finally, additional arrangements as may be necessary to implement this agreement may be entered into by the appropriate authorities of the two governments.

If the foregoing is acceptable to the Government of the Republic of Suriname, the Embassy proposes that this note, together with the Ministry's reply to that effect, shall constitute an agreement between the two governments, which shall enter into force on the date of the Ministry's reply, and shall remain in force for an initial term of one year and shall be automatically extended for additional periods of one year unless either Party terminates this agreement by giving the other Party six months prior written notice of its intent to terminate the agreement.
